

The Mystery of Iniquity (Part IX)

"Most survivors whom I have worked with had satanist parents who were in high positions in churches; many were pastors."

Dr. Loreda Fox

Witchcraft in the Churches

Do you ever wonder where the satanic covens in your community are hiding? Look no further, because chances are you will find them in church leadership roles! Back in the early 90s while visiting the offices of a world famous ministry in New York City, I was astonished to see a table decorated solely with a black candle prominently set at the entrance. At the time I was somewhat aware of the occult connection, but dismissed it as merely a strange choice for a church office.

Burned for positive purposes, this colour opens up the deeper levels of the unconscious. Black is used in rituals to induce a deep meditational state and is good for banishing evil or negativity. Connects to self control, quiet power, and resilience, as it absorbs negativity and destroys it; offers strength and support in spells; protects from retribution and is also an aid during loss.

The occult purpose of black candles – internet source

Black candles are used to access the deeper levels of the unconscious and prepare minds to unquestioningly accept their doctrines. Doesn't this completely fit in with the mind control techniques that I've already described in this article series? These people are implanting the doctrines of devils into the subconscious from their pulpits and then using black magick curses to reinforce them!

Disappearing Object Phenomenon

In this same church I was told by the staff that they had incidents of missing items, large items like synthesizers were simply disappearing. I was also told that these things were happening when the church was closed and it was postulated to me that there was supernatural activity involved. I subsequently found this warning to have been accurate, because I experienced firsthand things disappearing from a locked cabinet for which I had been specifically told I was the only one with a key.

For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

2 Corinthians 11:13-15 (KJV)

There is a powerful spirit of intolerance rising up in the apostate church against those who dare to call Christians living in sin to repentance. Far from a haven of safety, churches are already becoming centers of persecution for true Christians. I have personally heard many stories from Christians who have taken a stand against sin and false doctrines in their churches and been condemned from the pulpit and even excommunicated!

The false apostles who long ago snuck into the churches (Jude 1:4 KJV ) have now become so well entrenched that they run most of them. These Luciferians are using the pulpits to subjugate Christians to the Antichrist system. At first they will accomplish this by misusing scripture like Romans 13 in order to suppress dissent against the government. Later they will spread disinformation amongst the people on a grand scale. Finally they will actively participate in both turning in and persecuting Christians who dare to speak the truth.

Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death; But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses, And said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

Matthew 26:59-61 (KJV)

They will persecute us and bear false witness against us, just as they did to Christ (Matthew 10:24-25 KJV )). As things get worse there will be agent provocateurs; Already we've had men such as Fred Phelps doing horrible things in the name of Christ. Mark my words; you will soon see groups who call themselves 'Christian' committing so called 'hate crimes' and unspeakable acts against others to further drive the wedge between true Christians and the rest of society. These will be what are called 'false flag operations'; pre-planned public incidents designed to bring shame upon the true Christian.

GO TO PART X

